MESSAGE FROM THE MAYOR OF NEW YORK CITY
MICHAEL R. BLOOMBERG

THE CITY OF NEW YORK
OFFICE OF THE MAYOR
NEW YORK, NY 10007

March 1, 2012

Dear Friends:

It is a great pleasure to welcome everyone to the Chinese Cultural Foundation's 10th Anniversary Celebration.

As New Yorkers, we live in a multicultural world capital, and are strengthened by the diversity that helps to define our City. Chinese New Yorkers, especially, play a major role in maintaining our cultural vitality, and we look forward to even greater achievements in the Year of the Dragon. With the exhibition of Jim Wolfensohn's "Rare Birds of China" collection and China New Media's "China-Screen" in Times Square, we can all recognize the work of organizations like the Chinese Cultural Foundation to further and preserve Chinese culture right here in New York.

On behalf of our great City, congratulations on your tenth anniversary, and best wishes for continued success.

Sincerely,

HONORARY CHAIRMAN OF THE CHINESE CULTURAL FOUNDATION

Maurice R. "Hank" Greenberg 格林伯格先生 has played a singular role in advancing a healthy and constructive relationship between the United States and China. As a business leader and corporate legend, he has cultivated relations with China's leaders, advocated for opening the country's markets to greater foreign investment and encouraged its integration into the global community. He also has generously contributed and supported numerous educational, cultural, healthcare, social and environmental causes around the world.

Introduction of the “Rare Birds of China”

About 3,000 years ago, Chinese artists painted colorful images of pheasants on parchment and embroidered them on tapestries. Then, 300 years ago, Western explorers began to discover that these flamboyant birds actually existed, and that many of them lived in the remote highland forests of China. Today, these extraordinary beautiful Chinese birds continue to fascinate the world.

The “Rare Birds of China” were painted by J. Fenwick Lansdowne, one of the world's most highly-regarded naturalist artists - A twentieth century Audubon. This major undertaking was commissioned by David Newbigging, former Chairman of Jardines and Sir James D. Wolfensohn, former President of the World Bank as an artistic record of rare and endangered species in China.

The selection of birds was made in association with the Academia Sinica and the Beijing Natural History Museum, and with support from the British Museum, the American Museum of Natural History, Royal Ontario Museum and the Smithsonian Institution. The project started in 1984 and was completed in 1992.

The collection of the “Rare Birds of China” on display here in Harvard Hall, also represents the aspirations of the Chinese Cultural Foundation; and that is to expose to the world, Chinese cultural and artistic excellence of the highest order to promote peace and harmony amongst all peoples.

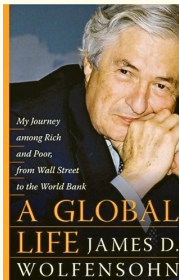

“中国珍稀鸟”于1984年在怡和洋行前董事长大卫·纽壁坚和前世界银行行长沃尔芬森爵士共同资助下由著名鸟类艺术家兰斯多恩历时7年创作完成的32幅艺术版画。曾在中国自然博物馆、英国大英博物馆、加拿大皇家安大略博物馆、美国纽约自然博物馆和华盛顿斯密松宁国家博物馆展出，并已被国家首脑，欧洲皇室及著名企业与私人收藏。它激发人们對自然环境和生命的熱愛，以及對拯救和保護瀕危珍稀鳥類的關注。随着时光的流逝，将变得越来越珍稀。

Dear Friends of the Chinese Cultural Foundation,

In our very small world, it is culture in all forms that unites us. Art, music, dance, literature -- are the elements that transcend our daily lives and make us realize that we are all part of a single global community, and that beauty has no national boundaries.

The Chinese Cultural Foundation has as its mission to share the finest of Chinese culture with the rest of the world. As such, it is playing a vital role in enriching our lives and in bridging the differences and misunderstandings which naturally occur as China gains such global prominence in such a short period of time.

I offer my congratulations to the Chinese Cultural Foundation on its 10th Anniversary for playing such a positive role in contributing to world peace, harmony and prosperity.

Sincerely yours,

James D. Wolfensohn

Dear Elizabeth:

Congratulations on the 10th Anniversary of the Chinese Cultural Foundation.

New Yorkers have benefited from the Chinese Cultural Foundation's presence in our City. It has given New Yorkers the opportunity to see and understand so much about Chinese art. The interest by Americans in Chinese art has grown as our relationship between our countries has grown. Art and culture has a universal attraction.

Unfortunately I have a long-standing commitment on March 1st. If it is at all possible, I will try to break away for a few moments, but it will be very difficult.

Congratulations again on the achievement of the Chinese Cultural Foundation.

Sincerely,

CHINESE CULTURAL FOUNDATION

PROGRAMS

Since its founding, the Chinese Cultural Foundation has successfully provided a series of cultural and educational programs at many prestigious global gatherings. These include: the First World Cultural Summit at the Palace of Versailles in France, the World Economic Forum - China Business Summit in Beijing, the Asia Capital Forum in Dongguan, China, the Institutional Investor - China Investment Forum in New York City, the China-U.S. Business Forum at the Great Hall of the People in Beijing and special events at the United Nations, the National Arts Club, Bank of China, Citibank and other cultural, business, government and academic venues throughout the world.

As the role of China on the world stage becomes increasingly important - the role of the Chinese Cultural Foundation becomes ever more relevant. Culture can play a significant role in creating an environment of harmony and stability. It brings people together to appreciate the beauty of art, music, dance and other forms of culture that unite us as fellow members of our global community.

中华文化基金会曾多次应邀成功地与国际文化和世界经济组织合作提供艺术展览和文化专题活动。其中包括在巴黎的凡尔塞宫举办的由联合国教科文组织及四十多个国家共同参与的“第一届世界文化高峰会”；在北京举办的“世界经济论坛”2004年中国企业高峰会；在东莞举办的“亚洲资本论坛”；2006年在北京人民大会堂举办的首届“中美经贸论坛”；在纽约大都会俱乐部举办的“第三届中国投资论坛”；2008年在“华夏文化纽带工程”“中华文化标志城”北京国务院新闻办发布会上代表纽约市长彭博宣读贺信；2009年参与协办国家发改委在北京举办的“首届中国城市经济发展与国际合作论坛”并与女娲亚太基金会共同主办第一届“女娲奖颁奖典礼”。并先后与中国银行, 美国花旗银行, 联合国总部, 美国国家艺术俱乐部, 哈佛俱乐部以及国际知名企业, 院校和文化金融机构合作推出高水准的文化交流活动在美国主流社会产生了积极的影响。

AIESEC is the world's largest student-run organization with local committees at top universities in over 110 countries and with over 60,000 members. AIESEC provides reciprocal management traineeships that give young people the cultural, language and work experience needed for success in today's global society. AIESEC was started in Europe after WWII to prevent WWIII by enabling students from one country to get to know and respect young people from other countries. Today the fastest growing parts of AIESEC are in China, India, Brazil, Poland and other dynamic economies throughout the world.

INTRODUCTION OF CHINA NEW MEDIA

China New Media, was founded in 2000 in Dalian, China. It is primarily an outdoor media company with international perspectives and ambitions. Since its inception, the company has adopted the philosophy of "building new urban infrastructure" which offers advertising effectiveness along with aesthetic qualities and public services in the most desirable locations.

The company went public in the U.S. in 2009, as "Vastitude Media", and is now known as "China New Media". It was the first outdoor media company that won the prestigious "Well-known Trademark" award in China. It initially focused on developing its footprint around the Bohai Sea region including Tianjin and Shenyang and has recently expanded into first-tier cities such as Beijing and Shanghai. The company is now able to leverage its media network in multiple cities to maximize growth and profitability and seeks to expand globally through merger and acquisitions.

The Company recently secured the operating rights to the LED billboard located at No.1 Times Square in New York City - the "China Screen". This is the first time a Chinese outdoor media company has expanded overseas, and it has steadily progressed from a regional, to a national and now an international multi-media enterprise with full-service capability for its growing list of important clients.

大连国域无疆传媒集团有限公司2000年成立于辽宁大连，是一家以本土为战略核心、以国际视野为运营核心而成长起来的户外传媒公司。公司成立之初，便一直秉承“城市家居”发展理念，志在将户外媒体艺术化、城市化、家居化、人性化，以“精品传播”为服务理念，不断打造五星级户外媒体、户外媒体中的“高清”媒体。

自09年在美国上市后，国域无疆进入全新发展阶段。作为首家荣获中国驰名商标的户外传媒企业，国域无疆励精图治十余载，除在天津、沈阳等地开展环渤海深耕战略外；面向一线城市，正式进入北京、上海市场，推进一线城市营销中心对市场机会的全面把握，形成城市中轴线媒体战略布局，使全国媒体有效联动；同时制定世界级并购战略与行动计划。

于2012年3月，正式行使位于美国纽约时报广场1号楼LED的运营权，称之为——“中国红屏”，这是中国户外传媒企业第一次走出国门，登顶世界户外传媒的最高点。随着全球目标确立与实践，国域无疆正逐步实现从区域型公司向全国型公司、从单一型媒体到复合型媒体、从广告销售公司向媒体运营公司的全面转型，被业界看作中国东北地区最具规模性、成长性及发展潜力的户外媒体运营公司。
